

Constitution Test (Passport #1) Study Guide—Strahn
Test Date: Monday, March 11th, 2019
35 Multiple Choice and 1 Short Answer Question--85 points (Weighted)

Preamble Key Ideas

Key Articles of Constitution:

--Article 1

Legislative Branch

--“Necessary and Proper” or Elastic Clause

--House of Representatives vs. Senate

--Article 3

--How is Representation Determined?

--Article 4

House of Representatives:

--Article 5

--Length of terms

--The Amendment Process

--Number of Members

--Article 6

--Supremacy Clause

--Required Qualifications

The Bill of Rights:

Senate:

--Key Purposes:

--Length of terms

--1st Amendment

--Number of Members

--Key Rights

--Required Qualifications

--Establishment Clause

--Free Exercise Clause

Process for Creating a Law

--Libel, Slander, and Obscenity

General Powers of Congress

--Symbolic Speech

Executive Branch:

--Length of Term

--Prior Restraint

--Required Qualifications

--Clear and Present Danger Test

--Powers of President

--2nd Amendment

--Electoral College

--3rd Amendment

--4th Amendment

--Warrant

- Probable Cause
- Stop and Frisk Rule
- Due Process
- 5th Amendment
 - Self- Incrimination
 - Double Jeopardy
 - Eminent Domain (Takings)
 - Miranda vs. Arizona (Miranda Rights)
- 6th Amendment
 - Gideon vs. Wainright
- 7th Amendment:
- 8th Amendment
- 9th Amendment
 - Unenumerated Rights
- 10th Amendment
- 13th amendment
- 14th Amendment
- 15th Amendment
- 16th Amendment
- 19th Amendment
- 26th Amendment

- Separation of powers
- Checks and Balances
- Limited Government
- Individual Rights
- Transparency and Accountability
- Rule of Law
- Free and Fair Elections
- Other Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Definitions/Concepts:
- Civil Liberties
- Civil Rights
- The Concept of Incorporation
- In loco parentis

Key Founding Principles/Definition/Examples:

- Popular Sovereignty
- Federalism
- Republicanism

NOTE: All hand-written notes, including note-taking guides such as this study guide and the Constitution Packet will be allowed on the Constitution Test. Other photocopied materials (such as the Bill of Rights Handout) will not be allowed.